

Go's Birthday!

Epilogue - Enter The Argonauts

In a mysterious part of the Galar region.

In a secret place.

In an undisclosed date and hour.

A dark encounter is happening.

The meeting of the secret organization The Argonauts is happening right now in a very big dining hall, the architecture of the hall is very beautiful and it's inspired by the past of the Galar region, beautiful tapestries rich in old tales of the region hang on the hall.

Statues, pieces of armory and beautiful paints also are displayed around the hall, one who enters this dining hall can feel like they are going back in time to the old days of the Galar region but it's not an old dining hall because it's fully equipped with cutting edge technology to entertain the guests like a state of the art sound system and a very realistic hologram screen on the center of the long horizontal table.

A strong thunderstorm is happening outside, the windows of the hall show a beautiful white full moon outside of the room while the rain hits hard on the glass, this ominous atmosphere is even highlighted by a big fireplace that chirps the burning wood.

The wings of a flock of Zubat and Golbat can be heard from the outside, it's very late at night and the outside it's dark being only illuminated by the light of the moon that this night seems to shine brighter than usual.

The state of the art sound system plays an electronic keyboard soothing and haunting melody, the ominous music fits very well to the organization's dark and nefarious ambitions, the members of the reunion enjoy the fitting music.

A group of distinguish people are sitting around the big horizontal black wood table, on the table the most expensive food and drinks from all around the world are presented on golden and silver silverware, the leader of The Argonauts is a very refined man skilled in arts, science, technology and he also excels also in sports, politics, business and many other fields and of course, he is a master level Pokémon Trainer.

- My friends, I'm very happy that you all attended this dinner and of course, this is a business meeting to discuss the future of The Argonauts. Says a man in his forties with short white hair, very tanned skin and wearing a very long black cloak that make hard to see his true shape, his voice is very soothing, severe but at the same time inviting, his blues eyes are cold and piercing like an Ice move from a Pokémon.

The man who spoke is the leader of The Argonauts, his name is Llun, the Disciple of Moon in The Argonauts Galaxy System, his specialty are the Ultra Beast Pokémon, like the Moon, he is orbiting the entire world and is always watching, even if you can't see the Moon in the daylight.

- The PokéWorld is flat my friend! I would never miss a chance to talk to you Mr. Llun and this dinner was marvelous, way better than those Arnozobo organized last time! Says in a roughly voice a man in his eighties, his skin is very pale and he uses brown glasses, he is wearing a brown business suit and is smoking a brown pipe.

The man who spoke is one of the members of The Argonauts, his name is Volao, the Disciple of Neptune in the Argonauts Galaxy System, his specialty are the Psychic Pokémon, he is considered The Mad Philosopher by the rest of The Argonauts because he is one of the most powerful man in terms of controlling and manipulating people, he is a master hypnosis.

- I'm very happy you enjoyed your meal Volao, sadly, we don't have any news from our friend Arnozobo since his last failure in The Arceus Kingdom fiasco. Says Llun taking a sip of a very expensive champagne.

A very big man in his forties with a greasy face sporting a brown beard and hair, wearing a plain cheap blue shirt yells furiously punching the table - Arnozobo was canceled! His opinions were too based for this world! Just because a guy hates women, diversity and inclusion doesn't mean he is a bad guy, the world is too politically correct today as I like to say in my Pokétube Channel!

The man who spoke is also member of The Argonauts, his name is Waido, the Disciple of Jupiter in The Argonauts Galaxy System, his specialty are the Ground Pokémon, he is considered a very influential and infamous member of the Pokétube community by his strong opinions against diversity, woman and inclusion.

- Waido! I see you haven't changed anything since our last meeting. Says Llun laughing a bit at Waido's nonsensical comment.

A very beautiful black woman with an half undercut hair and half braided black hair in her thirties dressing a black modern dress sporting big golden circle earrings yells at Waido - You know, I don't miss Arnozobo at all, I hate inclusion, diversity and all those crybabies, but I'm a woman, and Arnozobo is a single for life like you Waido!

The woman who spoke is also a member of The Argonauts, her name is Lady K, the Disciple of Venus in The Argonauts Galaxy System, her specialty are the Poison Type Pokémon, she is a very famous singer and no one knows of her participation in The Argonauts.

Waido punches the table once again making his plate with a mountain of food on it to shake - This is an option for my life Lady K! Do you think I care to get married like those stupid guys? Waido yells furiously at Lady K, they never were on good terms.

- Lady K! I see you are remarkable and as beautiful as ever! I love your toxicity. Says Llun giving her a cheer with his glass of expensive champagne. Lady K smiles and replies biting her tongue- You're as beautiful as ever Lord Llun, did you lose some weight my dear? Llun laughs and replies humbly - It's your eyes my dear, I'm still the same as always.

- So, we lost Arnozobo, our Disciple of Mars in The Argonauts Galaxy System, who is going to replace him Mr. Llun? Asks Volao as he takes a sip of a very expensive coffee. Llun eyes pierces Volao and he replies softly - He was truly a unique man, he hated Pokémon, but his talents were rare, more importantly than replacing Arnozobo, we have to find more members for The Argonauts Galaxy System bringing their unique talents to the organization.

Waido while munching his food asks Llun - So Lord Llun, did Sasaki from Team Rocket agree to join us? Llun looks to Waido who stops munching his food, cleans his mouth with a beautiful towel that is on the table and swallows the food, Llun is such a imposing and transcendental figure that even man like Waido acts polite and respectful to him.

- No, he disagreed, he prefers to work solo like Mr.Rose from Macro Cosmos, but he is a very good business partner that I respect profoundly like Mr.Rose too. Says Llun in a succinct and firm tone.

A very thin and tall woman in her forties dressed in a black and white fur gala dress smokes a long cigarette puffing the green smoke in the air in big circles, Volao is impressed by how much that woman loves to smoke even rivaling him.

The woman's hair is big like a tower and it's half white and black, her lipstick is also half white and black like the rest of her clothing, boots and expensive rings, she says that life is all about extremes, about black and white, chaos and order, life and death, weak and powerful.

The woman says in a scandalous tone to Llun - Darling! Don't get so stressed about that, how about we focus on fashion and some beautiful Pokémon fur? The woman smokes a bit more and then she says exacerbated - I want some Alolan Vulpix fur as you promised in our last meeting!

This woman is Mother Black and White, a powerful member of The Argonauts, she is the Disciple of Mercury in The Argonauts Galaxy System, her specialty are Dark Type Pokémon, she is also a huge fashion entrepreneur that loves beauty and elegance, she is the owner and chief designer of the brand MOTHER that produces clothing of various styles for man, woman, children and even Pokémon and it's famous around all over the world.

People don't know that behind the screens she is obsessed with Pokémon fur to make clothing for herself and some selected individuals who commission those high priced clothes, making clothing out of Pokémon fur is illegal.

Llun laughs and says - The fur you asked it's on it's way Mother Black and White. The woman smiles and drinks a bit of the expensive champagne, Llun looks at the rest of the guests and he stands up raising his glass to them, everyone looks dignified to their supreme leader.

- I asked you all to reunite here today for a celebration! We're more than halfway through to completion of The Argonauts Galaxy System, only leaving the spaces for Saturn, Uranus, Mars and Earth. Says Llun in a strong and imposing voice that sounds natural and not forced.

Volao, Mother Black and White, Waido and Lady K get up from their chairs and look at Lord Llun and raise their glasses and cups to to their supreme leader and at the same time they yell strongly - To our Lord Llun, the Moon, the Supreme Leader of The Argonauts!

Llun opens both palms and tells them to sit down, he smiles and says - I'm deeply moved by the presence and how you showed your loyalty to me and our cause, I have seen from your reports that the plans have been going smoothly.

Everyone smiles hearing the kind words of their leader and he smiles back to them - Arnozobo's Hate Network has been destroyed and the science team behind his previous enterprise are all in jail, but, I want to present you a new version of the Hate Network.

A big hologram is displayed on the center of the table showing the new system, it's interface and how the new Hate Network would work, this time he wouldn't need to receive input from users who needed to join the website and their false promises of a better life and the promise of revealing the dark truth of the Pokémon world, those users would talk about their frustration in their lives when while they are indoctrinated by fake news and evil intentions by the managers of the website.

- The new Hate Network doesn't work like the old one, right now as we speak, millions of Internet Bots are searching posts on Pokétube, Pokégram and other parts of the Internet for people who have potential to join our ranks as low members of The Argonauts or even as members of the Galaxy System, this is what I call Doxxing and Archiving method.

Lady K opens her mouth and gives a scream of pleasure clapping her hands together - Oh Lord Llun! Such a marvelous idea! Waido also compliments the new system - Whoa! This is better than my fake news and drama Pokétube channel! I'm almost deleted by their terms of conduct!

- I have also found more information about the whole fiasco of Arnozobo at Arceus Kingdom and I even discovered by Mr. Sasaki who destroyed the last Hate Network. Says Llun while he takes another sip of the expensive champagne.

Mother Black and White smiles and asks - Do we have the chance to know who destroyed our dear Hate Network and got rid of Arnozobo? Volao takes a last sip of the black coffee emptying the cup and he says - I'm curious to know who is responsible too.

Llun changes the hologram to show a video of Go, Satoshi, Pikachu and Raboot doing an interview for the local news of Vermilion City after they defeated Team Rocket during the carnival parade.

- Those two boys and their Pokémon are responsible for not only destroying Hate Network but defeating the powerful Arnozobo Crime Family, their names are Go and Satoshi, they are Research Fellows for Sakuragi Institute in the Vermilion City at Kanto.

Lady K laughs evilly and says - I can't believe Arnozobo and us got humiliated by those two brats!

Mother Black and White looks disgusted at Satoshi and Go - They don't have any sense of fashion! Look at Go and his ridiculous Cinderace T-Shirt and the other boy blue shorts, this is so out of season!

Waido punches the table and says angrily - They are probably those kids who have Nintendo Switch and like those ridiculous games, Come'on, they need to be a man like me and play games like Call Of Guns or World of Heavy Guys.

Volao claps his fists and says bitterly - I bet they think the world is round and not flat!

The leader of The Argonauts without changing his calm demeanor says - They have proven to be worthy adversaries for Team Rocket and Arnozobo, sadly, they are no match for us and our power, technology, wealth and influence.

The Argonauts cheer to their supreme leader, Llun once again open his palms as they stop the cheering, then he continues looking at the hologram that is showing the interview of Go and Satoshi - The next phase of our plan is very simple, I want to meet Satoshi and Go in person, an amicable reunion, a nice lunch, dinner and even a nice stay at our estate.

The members of The Argonauts smile evilly hearing the sweet words of themselves and their supreme leader, their minds are thinking in evil deeds, Llun pours more champagne on his glass, drinks it and continues in a calm demeanor - I'm very interested in meeting them personally and I believe they also want to meet me, the one who is truly behind the Hate Network and Arnozobo's ambitions.

Lady K, The Disciple of Venus, yells energetically as she fans herself with beautiful black fan with an Silicobra Pokémon pattern over it - I'm going to show them what Lady K Psychology Torture is all about!

Mother Black and White, The Disciple of Mercury, gets up from her chair and cracks the black and white leather whip she carries on her belt, the sound makes Waido jump a bit, she then yells outrageously - Darling Llun! Mother is going to teach those nasty boys to have manners!

Waido, the Disciple of Jupiter, takes all the food in his plate and throws inside his mouth as he speaks with his mouth full spilling food everywhere - I'm going to chew them like this delicious food! Everyone looks disgusted at him.

Volao, the Disciple of Neptune, smokes his pipe and cries angrily as he coughs - I'm going to flatten them like the Earth! They are going to learn the truth of the Earth's shape!

All the present Argonauts Disciples cheer, raising their glasses and cups and they all say at the same time energetically - All hail our supreme leader! The Moon, Lord Llun! The Argonaut!

Llun smiles and nods positively to them - Let's discuss and plan how our fateful meeting will happen, I want every detail to be perfect, as you all know, I'm a gentleman and I want them to have the best time of their lives staying at our estate.

The Argonauts cheer and laugh evilly hearing the sweet words of Llun as the supreme leader looks to the hologram and concentrates his view on the smiles and bright eyes of Satoshi, Go, Pikachu and Raboot and he thinks to himself.

"Satoshi you're not going to beat Dande and you're not a great Pokémon Trainer."

"Go, you're not going to capture Mew and you are not as smart as you think".

"In the end, no one defies the power of the Moon, the power of Lord Llun."

Llun takes a silver spoon and takes a big slice of a kiwifruit cake, his favorite fruit, one of the only common traits he shared with Arnozobo, to his mouth as he closes his eyes thinking about the next stage of his evil plans and ambitions as he hears the suggestions and ideas of the rest of The Argonauts.

The rain stops outside and The Argonauts don't know, but a mysterious rainbow appears even if it's night, a rainbow of hope always appears doesn't matter how terrible the storm was, hope, courage and dreams are the colors that made the rainbow that triumphs over the bad weather.
