

This planet is inhabited by mysterious creatures called Pocket Monsters, or shortly, as people like to call them, Pokémon, for some people, Pokémon are pets, for others, Pokémon are a big help in advancing society and for Pokémon Trainers, they are for Pokémon Battles.

This is the story about Satoshi and Go adventures and life, Satoshi who wants to challenge the world Pokémon Champion Dande and Go who wants to catch every Pokémon to work his way to capture the legendary Pokémon Mew.

What adventure awaits them today?

Satoshi and Go Vacation Adventure in Arceus Kingdom

Chapter I - Vacation.

The morning rays of a cold winter morning of December 22th shine through the circular window of the last bedroom at the top of the Sakuragi Institute, the attic was transformed into a bedroom to accommodate two new guests of the laboratory: Satoshi and Go, two new Research Fellows for the Institute Sakuragi, they are also Pokémon Trainers.

It's almost Christmas, if wasn't by the Christmas spirit, decoration and presents you wouldn't be able to tell it is, in the region of Kanto at the Vermilion City is where is Institute Sakuragi localized, there is no snow, but more of a chillier summer weather, it makes for a very different and unique amazing Christmas feeling nonetheless.

The two boys are sound asleep, Go is even snoring while Satoshi is mumbling something about Team Rocket and Pikachu, meanwhile, downstairs, Professor Sakuragi, the head of the Sakuragi Institute, and his wife, Yoshino, a brilliant graphic designer, are preparing the car, organizing the luggage and also making some special snacks for Satoshi, Go and her daughter and son, Koharu and Sota, because they are going on a special adventure today.

- Maybe I should wake up the boys? Asks Professor Sakuragi out loud while taking a sip of his black coffee checking if all the luggage is locked, he is checking the luggage at the recreation room, Professor Sakuragi is a man in his early thirties, using a brown glass, wearing a blue polo t-shirt, white shorts and brown khaki shoes.

- I think they can wake up on their own Professor. Says Yoshino gently, the maroon ponytail woman is eating a piece of toast with one hand and with her other hand using a wooden spoon to finish an omelet in the style of Tamagoyaki for the sandwiches. Yoshino also uses glasses like her husband, they are both even in the same color! She is wearing a pink t-shirt, a white legging and pink sandals.

- Professor? We don't need to be so formal dear! Says Sakuragi laughing, Yoshino looks back from the kitchen and laughs, she replies to Sakuragi with a smile that means she agrees with him.

- Koharu and Sota wrote to me that they are already ready for us to pick them up. Says Yoshino checking her messages on her phone and also seeing some art news about a Christmas drawing contest.

The Pidgely alarm clock starts to ring singing the popular music named 1,2 3 in a Christmas Remix. The boys start to wake up listening to the loud pop music, they are yawning and scratching their bodies because they are very tired of yesterday adventure, one more time they went out to capture Pokémon and research about a special event that is happening in the port city of Vermilion, a very big migration of Wingull from the Hoenn region.

- I'm tired but excited at the same time! Shouts Satoshi jumping from the second floor of the bunk bed, Go and Scorbunny almost get hit by Satoshi as he falls down from the bed.

- Don't flat me and Scorbunny here! Says Go a bit annoyed by Satoshi over enthusiastic behavior, Satoshi laughs and runs directly to the bathroom.

Go watches Satoshi going to the bathroom and thinks about how great a friend he is and how many adventures they already had together even if they became friends only for the past six months.

Satoshi is a very experienced Pokémon Trainer who went all the way from the small Pallet Town in Kanto to became world famous, not only he battled countless Pokémon battle against rivals, Team Rocket and powerful Gym Leaders but, most importantly of all, he also met and helped a lot of people and Pokémon during his ongoing journey to become a Pokémon Master.

Satoshi starts to brush his teeth super fast and is laughing a bit how he almost made a pancake of Go and Scorbunny, he thinks about how Go is an amazing friend and how much they have battled, captured and helped Pokémon together since they became friends.

Go is the same age of Satoshi, but he is a newcomer to the Pokémon world, he is not an experienced trainer and never traveled the entire world, what he lacks in experience, he has in passion for Pokémon, Go loves Pokémon and wants to capture everyone of them to make his way to catch the legendary Pokémon Mew who fascinated him since he was younger when he had a fateful meeting with Mew at Professor's Ohkido Ranch.

Go and Scorbunny enter the bathroom and the boy asks Satoshi smugly - Didn't you forget something, some friend?.

- Oh! Pikachu! You need to wake up! Shouts Satoshi running to the bedroom to wake up his partner Pokémon, Pikachu, an Electric type rodent Pokémon who doesn't reside into a Pokéball but follows Satoshi everywhere he goes, he is the first Pokémon Satoshi has ever had, they have a very special bond and are best friends.

- Pikachu, wake up! Says Satoshi gently brushing Pikachu yellow fur with his hand, Pikachu looked at Satoshi and yawned - Pika Pika! His Z-format tail wags happily, he climbs to Satoshi shoulder as both get down from the bed.

- Scorbunny, today is our big day! Says Go while him and Scorbunny are making a victory sing with their hands while they look at the mirror admiring themselves.

Scorbunny is a Fire Type rabbit Pokémon partner of Go, after accompanying Go to the bathroom he goes back to the bedroom to do some kick-ups with a soccer ball that Satoshi and Go usually play on the weekends, he kicks the ball to Satoshi who kicks it back to him as they start to play.

Pikachu and Scorbunny are very loyal to their partners, both are mischievous and like to play with their trainers, they are also great Pokémon for battles. Satoshi and Go have other Pokémon that they carry around, but they left them in their Pokéballs like most Pokémon prefer, only very special Pokémon make a strong enough bond to feel comfortable being outside of a Pokéball all the time. Pokémon Trainers usually only carry at maximum six Pokémon with them.

There is a loud ruckus from the attic, Satoshi, Go, Pikachu and Scorbunny are getting ready to come down for breakfast and for their special vacation while they play around, meanwhile, Sakuragi and Yoshino are almost done with the preparations for their travel.

- They sure are packed with energy for this special assignment, I hope they leave a bit of energy for the vacation. Says Sakuragi finishing putting the last luggage inside the trunk of the Sakuragi family blue sports car.

- I think they are a perfect fit for the job dear. Says Yoshino laughing while putting a picnic basket inside the backseat of the car, the picnic basket is packed with juice, fruits, sandwiches and a delicious chocolate carrot cake.

Satoshi and Go are Research Fellows for Professor Sakuragi doing scientific research which equals to having adventures with Pokemon around the entire planet while registering what they found in their Rotom Phone, a Rotom Phone it's a phone that has been possessed by the Electric-Ghost Type Pokemon Rotom so it has enchanted features that no other regular phone will have like a Pokédex.

Yoshino and Sakuragi are sitting on the couch at the recreational area of the Pokemon Laboratory after finishing their preparation, they are watching the morning news, presented by a beautiful blond haired news reporter and her Gardevoir, as usual, they report the weather, the traffic, the newest Pokémon fads that are going around etc.

- We are ready! Says both boys striking a cool pose in the recreational room with Pikachu and Scorbunny also making a pose too but a more sillier one, Yoshino and Sakuragi laugh and clap at their performance.

Satoshi and Go are both of the same height, Satoshi hair is dark, his skin is fair and his eyes are brown while Go hair is a bit darker than Satoshi, his skin is tanned and his eyes are blue, Go doesn't wear a cap like Satoshi and prefers to use a red hair clip to hold a bit of his hair on the side.

Satoshi is wearing a red cap with a Pokédex emblem, a blue jacket over a white t-shirt with a red flat line stamp, blue trousers, a green bag, a black and blue sneaker while Go wears a red hair clip to hold a bit of his hair, a gray t-shirt with red details in the collar, sleeves and pockets, a darker gray summer pants and a gray and black sneaker.

- Professor, what is this surprise all about? Asks Satoshi between a bite and another of his cereal and a chocolate donut.

- Satoshi, it wouldn't be much of a surprise if I told you, but you don't need to worry, today we're going to have a family adventure together that is all about Pokémon and something you and Go love. Says Sakuragi smiling.

- Ohhhh, says an excited Go. - We like to do a lot of stuff Professor! Adds Go eating a banana donut and making suggestions of what it could be that they would do together.

- Satoshi, your mother Hanako is going to have Christmas at Professor Ohkido's but she said you better come back for the New's Year party, we're going too, we always wanted to visit Pallet. Says Yoshino, she really wanted to make sure that Satoshi wouldn't feel sad because he was not going to spend Christmas with his mother and Professor Ohkido as usual, but Satoshi understood that they weren't able to join them because the roads are blocked due a giant blizzard storm provoked by an unknown Pokémon between Viridian City and Pallet Town.

- It's okay! Really, the important part of Christmas is spending the day with the people we love and care about, we're family here! Says Satoshi drinking a cup of orange juice, Go hearing that blushed a bit and thought how much he and Satoshi are almost brothers.

- Yeah! Says Go agreeing with his friend - Also, I wanted to hold this surprise for you Satoshi, but me, mom and dad, Koharu and Sota are also invited for the New Year's party at Professor Ohkido's! Shouts Go very happy, Satoshi reacts by jumping from his chair in excitement, Pikachu and Scorbunny hear what Go shouted and also jump in excitement celebrating what they heard.

Family. Hanako, Professor Sakuragi, Ohkido, Sota, Koharu, Go, Yoshino, Go's parents, Kurune and Ikuo, they are a big extended family.

- I really love Christmas, isn't it lovely? Says Yoshino admiring the Christmas Tree in the middle of the recreational room and the rest of the Christmas decoration while she takes a sip of hot cocoa, then she continued - The small acts of kindness brings people together and awakens the best of us, what you said Satoshi, is really important, Christmas is not about presents, the dinner or even the decoration but celebrating the day with the people we love. Says Yoshino, the boys admired and flavored the meaning of each word as they were donuts while Sakuragi, as always, got stunned by how smart and kind is his wife.

- I love Christmas, it's my favorite time of the year. Says a happy Satoshi also peeking an eye at Pikachu and Scorbunny playing soccer on the other side of the room. - Pika Pika! Says Pikachu shooting the ball to Scorbunny who hits with the head passing again to Pikachu.

- It's our first Christmas together, so that's why I have decided for us to take this vacation, I mean, special research activity, thanks to the Galar region investment in Kanto, we now can reach our destination in a couple of hours. Says Professor Sakuragi.

- We have put this special holiday vacation together so we can celebrate how you boys and Koharu have helped the institute. We invited Kikuna and Renji but they went to their homes to celebrate with their families because they haven't seen each other for a bit of time. Says Yoshino and then she remembered - We also need to bring some souvenirs for them! Says a caring Yoshino making a mental note.

- When you boys are ready, we need to go to the car and go to our home because Koharu and Sota are waiting for us there. Says Sakuragi.

- That's amazing! I can't believe we're having a Christmas vacation! Says Go who is very excited as he watches Satoshi who joined Pikachu and Scorbunny in their soccer game, Go then excuses himself from the table and joins them in their game while Yoshino and Sakuragi finish their breakfast.

Christmas is a special holiday in the Pokémon world, not only mysterious Pokémon appear all over the world like Stanlers, Delibirds and many more, people all over the planet celebrate the wonderful of gift of life in this holiday by reuniting with their families, giving presents, decorating the house and also having a Christmas Tree because nothing means life more than a very a strong tree. There is also the mysterious character known as Santa Claus, a very old, wise and good man dressed in red that carries an infinite leather sack full of presents, he gives presents to people who have been good all year along.

Stories tell that Santa Claus rides a magical sled led by a powerful group of Stanler who can fly at the speed of a Lugia, no one has ever met or proven the existence of Santa Claus but no one can deny the mysterious presents found underneath the Christmas tree, stockings or even in the bed of people who have been good the whole year. To receive a Christmas present from Santa Claus you have to be a very special person.

The boys, Pikachu, Scorbunny and Yoshino go to the car after finishing their breakfast while Professor Sakuragi is giving that last look into the laboratory to see if everything is okay because they would spend the entire weekend out.

The professor is almost pressing the button of the controller to turn off the television of the recreational room of the laboratory when an upcoming developing story comes up about a strange white balloon in format of the head of a Meowth with a big letter R in red was seen flying around Ecruteak City and suddenly disappeared like an Abra.

Professor Sakuragi watches a bit of the story then turns the television off.

- I think this is nothing to worry about, I hope. Says Sakuragi thinking out loud to himself.
