

Satoshi and Go Vacation Adventure in Arceus Kingdom

Chapter VIII - Alis.

Satoshi, Koharu, Sota and Pikachu are dumb folded that Team Rocket is also inside the resort and planning, as always, do to do something evil, and even worse, maybe their plans involve doing something really bad with Go and Scorbunny.

It's three o'clock in the afternoon and you can already see tired guests and Pokémon going back to their rooms in Central Zone, the resort is getting emptier but will get jam packed again for the nocturnal activities such as a very fun activity of treasure hunting in Night Zone or Yopa's concert later at the Show Zone.

The gang is reunited in one of the various places to rest at the entrance of Central Zone, there is a water fountain nearby where a Suicune statue springs cold potable water from his mouth, street lamps, recycle bins and of course some trees to provide shade for the guests to relax during the sunlight.

- I'm going to message him. Says Koharu taking action first already with her smartphone on hand, Pikachu hits gently with his head Satoshi legs and says worried - Pika Pika. Satoshi smiles confidently trying to cheer up his Pokémon and says - I know you're worried about those two, but we need first to make a plan and warn them about Team Rocket, the fastest way is using a smartphone.

The afternoon rays shine bright on the gang from the azure sky, after some ten minutes Koharu says - He is not checking his smartphone, Sota starts to look worried about the whole situation, Satoshi then suggests - Koharu, Sota, Pikachu, let's go back to the restaurant to see if he is still there! The gang agrees.

The gang goes back to the Heroes and Heroines Banquet Hall but there are no signs of Go and Scorbunny there anymore, they talk to some of the cast members to see if they have seen Go and Scorbunny around but they don't remember them, they suggest the gang to go the Arceus Knight HQ at the Main Hall to ask for information about the possible missing boy and his Pokémon, first the gang goes back to the green bench and they sit disappointed from not finding their friends.

- I think we better call Professor Sakuragi and Yoshino too, this can be serious. Says Koharu now worried about Go and Scorbunny, Satoshi looks sad at her, feeling guilty about all the situation - Yes! I think so, but, I didn't want to ruin their vacation because of me. Pikachu says sadly agreeing with Satoshi - Pika.

Koharu takes Satoshi hand and says gently - It's not you, Pikachu, Go or Scorbunny fault, you have been tricked by Team Rocket. Satoshi feels much better hearing those words of encouragement - Thanks Koharu! Pikachu also thanks her rubbing his head against her hand - Pika Pika!

- Forgive me for my intrusion, are you Mr. Satoshi, Miss. Koharu, Mr. Pikachu and Mr. Sota? Asks a beautiful teenager girl a bit older and taller than Satoshi and Koharu, she has fair skin, her light brown hair is tied into a curled ponytail at the side of her head, she is wearing a white feathered tiara, a white and pink dress, at her arms and legs, she is wearing a steel gauntlet and steel greaves, she is also carrying a sheathed sword, alongside her an equal beautiful Altaria is flying, the Pokémon nods to the gang gallantly as it's asking also for permission to talk.

- Mr. Satoshi? Says Satoshi pointing to himself, Koharu blushes by being addressed so formally and Sota is confused by how she is talking with them, Pikachu is also confused too.

Suddenly the entire gang felt like they were transported to a truly magical kingdom by the presence of the beautiful girl in her princess knight attire and her beautiful Flying-Dragon Type Pokémon, Altaria.

The beautiful teenager girl bows in reverence to the gang - My name is Alis, I'm the Princess of Lake City. Says Alis gallantly, the gang recognizes the word Lake City as a place in the story that Koharu told them during lunch.

- Oh! Cool! A character from the Shepard story! Says Satoshi smiling. - Oh! You all already are familiarized with the story? This will help us to get quicker to the point Mr. Satoshi. Says Alis diligent, her eyes spark a very beautiful light.

Koharu then interrupts the conversation of Satoshi and Alis - I'm sorry, but our friends are in big trouble, and we don't have time to play with you, can you help us? Asks Koharu, Alis smiles amused by the interruption and says politely but firmly - Miss. Koharu, this is why I'm here, I know what is happening at this resort and I beg of you to help me save your friend Go. his Scorbunny and the entire world.

Satoshi, Koharu, Pikachu and Sota jump surprised by how much she knows about them and by what she said about saving the world - How do you know our names and what is happening to Go, Scorbunny and the world? Asks Satoshi as gets closer and closer to Alis, he stops a bit and blush as how beautiful she is.

- Mr. Satoshi, I hope you believe in what I'm going to tell you, I'm the Princess of Lake City and my duty is to protect the region of Lake City even after death. Says Alis politely, Satoshi, Sota, Koharu and Pikachu jump scared - You're a ghost! Yells Sota scared and surprised by what she said.

Alis laughs at their shock and replies with her hands waving negative - I'm not a ghost per say! I'm more of a guardian spirit of this region, me and my Pokémon partner, Altaria, we both protect this region as spirits when trouble appears we are summoned.

Koharu looks suspicious to Alis and questions her - How can we know you are telling the truth and how do you know about our names and what is happening with Go and Scorbunny ? Alis politely answers - I believe it's okay to doubt what I said, only people with pure and strong hearts are the only ones in this whole place so called Arceus Kingdom who can see me and I can prove what I'm saying leading you all to where Mr. Go and his Scorbunny are.

The gang notices as they get a closer look at Alis and her Altaria that they are a bit translucent, like they are a mirage from a fantasy dream, there is also an aura about her and Altaria that really evokes that feeling of them being guardian spirits of the region, it's not only in their eyes they see this but in their hearts they feel the same.

- I trust you Alis! Yells Satoshi trusting his instincts and the shine eyes of Alis, he is desperate to get to where Go and Scorbunny are, Alis smiles and says - First, I need to talk about what is happening on the resort so you all can understand what we need to face on this trial.

Satoshi, Koharu, Sota and Pikachu listen closely to Alis as she starts to tell what is happening at the resort.

- As you all now, the story of the shepherd is true and it happened! Me, the Shepard, our friends and Pokémon partners traveled the entire Pokémon world to make Pokémon visible again and we also fought against the source of darkness of that age. Says Alis as the gang listen closely to her.

- Oh, that part we know! Says Koharu. Alis then continues to tell the story - The source of darkness was a Darkrai, a powerful Dark Type Mythical Pokémon who decided to curse humanity after he was treated very poorly by his Pokémon Trainer so in his rage he made all Pokémon invisible using his powers increased by his sadness.

Koharu says pitying the Darkrai - Poor thing! Satoshi then says with his fists clenched - Yeah, a Trainer needs to treat his Pokémon well! Pikachu also agrees too - Pika Pikachu!

Alis continues her story after the comments of the gang - During our journey together we finally met Ho-Oh and Lugia who are the Pokémon that the Shepherd decided to use as his partners, in our final battle, we all fought together against Darkrai here at my kingdom, Lake City, where people call today the Arceus Kingdom. The gang imagines how the battle went and are inspired by the tale.

- In the end we sealed Darkrai here in a special shrine using the Shepard sword, Stargazer, this made all Pokémon appear visible for everyone and the world was saved, but like all old stories, they became legend as time went by. Concluding Alis telling the end of the story, Altaria looks at her trainer and cheers the happy ending of the story - Alt Alt!.

Everyone looks impressed by the story, they all have some questions, but the first one to ask it is Sota - If Pokémon were invisible, how did you partner with your Altaria?

Alis looks at Sota with a big smile - The friends of Shepard became part of the Round Table, a special magical bond made by the small group of people who joined the Shepherd in his quest to save the world, the magical bond permitted us, The Round Table Knights, to see, partner with Pokémon and use the power of Kamui. She says while petting her Altaria who chirps happily.

- Whoa, you're a great Pokémon Trainer Alis! Says Satoshi, admired by how strong she is and also by how much she loves Pokémon. Alis smiles kindly and says - Thank you Mr. Satoshi, I believe you are also an amazing Pokémon Trainer that is why I came here to ask you to help to stop Arnozobo and his gang of villains from releasing Darkrai.

Satoshi, Koharu, Sota and Pikachu look puzzled at Alis, they thought this is a Team Rocket scheme - Who is Arnozobo? Asks Koharu curiously, Alis take a look at the blue sky like she is trying to take strength from it to talk about the horrible man, she then says - He is the leader of a powerful group of thieves who want to free Darkrai and use its power to conquer the world, they are also working with another group of thieves, the one you all know as Team Rocket.

- Okay! So this Arnozobo guy and Team Rocket want to free Darkrai, but where Go and Scorbunny fits in all this? Asks Satoshi smartly, finally taking grasp of the big picture that is playing.

Alis says in a sad tone holding the tip of the sheathed sword - To awaken Darkrai you need to produce an amount of sadness equals to what he suffered by his Pokémon Trainer, Darkrai was a pure heart and innocent Pokémon and so is Go and Scorbunny, Arnozobo and his gang of villains want to make your friend sad enough so they can use his sadness power to unleash Darkrai on the Pokémon World.

The gang is astonished by how far Arnozobo and Team Rocket are going this time, Pika angrily cries - Pika Pika Pikachu!

-That's terrible! Says Koharu, shocked by the evil plan scheme of Arnozobo and Team Rocket, Sota is scared about all this and starts to hug his sister, he is afraid of what is happening, Pikachu noticing that hugs Sota who feels better and more courageous.

Satoshi looks determined to Alis and yells heroically punching the air with his fists excited - I'm not going to let them have their way! Alis, we must get to Go and Scorbunny and stop Arnozobo and Team Rocket's evil ambitions. Pikachu hearing his Pokémon Trainer jumps out excited and screams agreeing with Satoshi - Pika Pika!

Alis smiles big because she is happy that she can count on Satoshi for this most important mission, she puts her hand on the tip of the sheath of her sword - I would like to ask Miss. Koharu and Mr. Sota to accompany us on our rescue mission to where Go and Scorbunny are, but only Mr. Satoshi and Mr. Pikachu can help me in battle, I believe he is the only Pokémon Trainer of you. Says the Princess of Lake City proud to have Satoshi and Pikachu as her allies in this quest.

- Shouldn't we first talk to Professor Sakuragi and Yoshino? Asks Sota worried about the whole situation, Satoshi looks at Sota and says in a powerful confident tone - I'm going to make everything right Sota, don't worry, I'm a Research Fellow, and most importantly, Go's best friend.

Sota looks admired at Satoshi and Pikachu and thinks to himself how much when he grow up he wants to be like Satoshi, a true hero, one who will never ever not help a friend or Pokémon in need, Alis looks proud to Satoshi and extends her hand to Satoshi who shakes it feeling.

- I already scouted the resort and their hideout is my old country mansion, we can reach there by the Lugia Train, first of all, I'm going to make myself visible for everyone so I can use my full powers with Altaria. Says Alis as she looks around to see if someone is nearby, they are alone, as she observes, she touches her feather tiara and says in an ancient language of the old world - Zumi o Suicune no yo ni masumise.

Suddenly the body of Alis and Altaria are engulfed in a bright gold light as a powerful gust of wind start to shake the leaves of the nearby trees, make some of the street lamps flicker and even the water from the fountain move like a stone is thrown at it, their bodies who were a bit translucent become fully visible, lucky for the princess knight and her Pokémon, the only ones at that side of the Main Corridor right now are Satoshi, Pikachu, Sota and Koharu.

- Amazing! Says Sota surprised by her magic, the girl smiles and says - Done! Now not only everyone can see me but I also can use Kamui. Says Alis excited to once again be on a mission, she loves to help and protect people and Pokémon.

Satoshi and Pikachu look curious but they think they know the answer for their question - What is Kamui? He asks curious to Alis.

- Kamui is a special power of those who are Knights of the Round Table, it permits the Knight and it's Pokémon to share their powers so the Knight for example, can get more physical strength while his Pokémon can get more faster, in my case, I get to be faster and my Altaria can use her Dragon Type Moves stronger than before.

Explains Alis summarizing what Kamui is.

Satoshi and Pikachu eyes shine - Cool! I wish I could use Kamui..Finishes Satoshi a little disappointed that he can't use Kamui with Pikachu, Alis laughs at what Satoshi said and replies happily - Mr. Satoshi and Mr. Pikachu, both of you can use Kamui, I can make you my Squires!

Koharu, Sota, Pikachu and Satoshi jump surprised at Alis proposition - Make us Squires? Says Satoshi once again pointing to himself and Pikachu, Koharu smiles and says - Make him a Squire! Sota also encourages the idea - Come'on Satoshi! I want you to save Go and Scorbunny.

The princess takes her sword from her sheath revealing it to be a beautiful silver sword, she asks gently to Satoshi and Pikachu - I ask you both to kneel before me, Princess Of Lake City, Knight of the The Round Table and Partner of Altaria to make you both my Squires at the Round Table. She finishes her instructions.

Satoshi and Pikachu kneel to Alis who takes her sword and gently turns it touching with it's flat part both shoulders of Pikachu and Satoshi - I ask you Mr. Satoshi and Mr. Pikachu to join the Knights of the Round Table, do you accept the ordeal to save this world from darkness? Says Alis in a heroic tone. Both future squires reply happily - Yes!

- Then I make you both my Squires by the magical bond of Narikami, Zapdos no yo ni masumie. Says Alis in the ancient language of the old word, as with her previous magic incantation, a strong gust of wind rides where they are, the lights nearby flicks and the water inside the fountain ripples, Koharu and Sota cheer in excitement to Satoshi and Pikachu who blink their eyes surprised.

Alis smiles and says - Get up my Squires, it's time for us to save Mr. Go and Mr. Scorbunny and the world. - I don't feel any different. Says Satoshi getting up with his Pikachu who replies - Pika Pika!

Satoshi and Pikachu were expecting that something would appear or that they would change clothes, but nothing happened, Alis look at them both and says - Don't worry! When you see me using Kamui just follow what I do, I believe you Mr. Satoshi and Mr. Pikachu are very similar to the Shepherd who is a very intuitive person.

- Mr. Pikachu, Mr. Satoshi, Mr. Sota and Miss. Koharu, we have to make haste to my old country mansion, or we will be too late, are you all ready? Says Alis, the group nods positively and they yell at the same time energetically - Let's go!

Inside the Lugia Train the gang awaits eagerly to arrive at Night Zone, Koharu is admiring Alis and thinking to herself how strong she is and she wants one day to be a Pokémon Trainer like her, Sota is thinking about how much fun will be when they reunite with Go and Scorbunny and that so much has happened since they disappeared the last hour ago.

The guests at the Lugia Train give respectful glances out of curiosity at Alis, they are surprised by the quality of her outfit that it's beyond the level of the other cast members, they don't know that the outfit is actually a true armor, the girl notices that and blushes a bit.

- Mr. Satoshi, I have to tell...before she even continues Satoshi interrupts her and says smiling - Just call me Satoshi! Koharu also says gently waving her hand - Me too! We don't need to be so polite, we're friends! Alis gives a smile and laughs a bit and thinks how much they are similar to her past group who traveled the Pokémon world, she says happily - Okay! The Shepherd and our group didn't like formalities too.

Sota is looking at the scenery and he notices that they are getting closer and closer to the Night Zone, it's almost the end of the afternoon and the street lights of the resort start to lit up as the train reaches its destination - I think we're close! He says excited.

- Before we arrive, I ask you to Sota and Koharu to stay outside of the mansion, if we don't get back in forty minutes, ask for help from Professor Sakuragi, Miss. Yoshino and The Arceus HQ. Says Alis in a commanding tone holding the tip of sheath of her sword, the gang agrees with her.

Satoshi puts his hands on Sota and Koharu shoulders, the boy says confident with a big smile on his face - Guys, don't worry! I'm going to bring Go and Scorbunny back. Alis smiles and says - I want to meet Go and Scorbunny, they are very nice, I wish I could have played with you all in the morning too, everyone smiles and the mood is very good despite this being a rescue mission.

Alis gives another information regarding the rescue mission, she says - Arnozobo's Science Laboratory, his secret hideout, is underground my old country home which is the entrance to the ruins of Lake City, they are conducting a lot of experiences on how to awaken Darkrai and they probably have some type of, I believe you call them, Mechas and scientists there.

- Oh, more the better! Says Satoshi with a smug smile, Pikachu hops to his shoulder and cheers - Pika Pika! Satoshi pats the head of Pikachu and says - You can't wait to give them some ELECTRO BALL on those bad guys right?

Koharu says intrigued - I think dad will want to explore those ruins later, he will be very happy about it! Alis looks at Koharu and replies - Those ruins were discovered when the resort was being built, Arnozobo didn't tell anyone about them. Koharu ponders and says - Make sense, so he can keep Darkrai powers only known to himself.

- Ohhh man, it's bad that such an awesome place is just a cover up for a bunch of bad stuff! Cries Satoshi disappointed about the whole resort, he loved the place, but discovering that it's just a scheme for Team Rocket and Arnozobo really made him sad.

Alis smiles at Satoshi, Koharu, Pikachu and Sota, she says enthusiastically trying to cheer the gang and also shedding some light on Arceus Kingdom - That's not true! Every person who built, worked here and visited here are very good people, the only ones working with Team Rocket it's just the three managers and Arnozobo himself, if we remove them, the resort will just need a new President, it's like a corrupt king of a great kingdom, we just need a great leader, a great President.

The gang cheers with the good news - Now I'm feeling better! Says Satoshi followed by Pikachu happy cries - Pika Pika! They are now almost entering the Night Zone and they feel good and relaxed about the upcoming rescue mission.

- How do you know so much about all this Alis? Asks Satoshi, curious about how transparent she made everything that is happening at the resort, she laughs and says - Remember when I said I'm invisible to those who don't have pure heart? I used this to sneak a lot around Arnozobo's office and Laboratory, but when I'm invisible I can interact very minimally with the physical world, it's not like I'm a ghost who can walk through walls.

Sota laughs and makes a joke - I wish you were a ghost then, would make things a lot easier! The gang laughs as they finally arrive at Night Zone, they march forward to where Go and Scorbunny are, because the Haunted Mansion is near the Genesect Chase attraction they have a great look at this zone of the resort.

- I can't wait to play with Go and Scorbunny there! Says Sota pointing his finger to the Genesect Chase attraction, with the other hand he is eating a pumpkin cupcake he cached very quickly to not slow them down, his youngster enthusiasm gives more motivation to Satoshi, Alis, Koharu, Altaria and Pikachu.

It's already night in the resort matching the style of Night Zone, they are finally arriving at the old mansion, they stop to look at it looming over them casting a shadow, the place must have looked beautiful in the past, thinks Satoshi to himself, Alis positions herself forward of the gang and unleashes her sword, she points it to the old mansion.

- There it is! This is where Arnozobo and your friends are! Altaria also chirps courageously at her side giving encouragement to the gang - Altaria! Altaria!

Satoshi clenches his fists and says excited - Let's go Pikachu, let's stop all this! Koharu also cheers alongside her friends - Let's save our friends! Sota says giving encouragement to everyone - Let's go! I want to play more tomorrow.

Finally, Pikachu climbs to Satoshi's shoulders and cries bravely while a bit of electric shock comes from his red cheeks - Pikachu! Pikachu!

The gang makes it way to the the entrance of the old mansion, surprising, the double wooden front door is open, Satoshi, Alis, Altaria and Pikachu enter the mansion and they give a nod to Sota and Koharu so they stay at the door of the mansion for backup.

- Satoshi and Pikachu, I have a strong feeling that they are on the second floor of the mansion. Says Alis in an almost inaudible whisper, Satoshi, who's not good in talking very low, just nods his heads with Pikachu, the duo of heroes and their Pokémon climb the stair slowly preparing for a surprise attack, and for the first time, Satoshi and Pikachu hears Arnozobo old and nasty voice.

Arnozobo yells maniacally - I did it! I can now awaken Darkrai and command it to turn the world into what it was in the past! Alis and Satoshi stop climbing the stairs, they feel a bad feeling about what is happening upstairs, they immediately look at each other and their Pokémon, their glances mean that they are going to rush in a blast, there is no time to waste to save their friends.

- Pikachu! Use QUICK ATTACK at the door, blast it open! Commands Satoshi, Pikachu jumps from Satoshi shoulder and energizes himself, in a flash, he runs very fast and headbutts the double door opening it wide open, Satoshi, Alis and Altaria rushes inside the room in hurried steps.

Arnozobo and Team Rocket are on the stage, at their left, Scorbunny is inside a metal black cage, at the dinner table, Go is still sobbing with his face hidden in shame in the carrot chocolate cake, this is even worse to what they imagined, because Satoshi, Alis, Pikachu and Altaria already know that they have bullied enough Go and Scorbunny for them to reach their evil ambitions.

- Who are you all? Yells Arnozobo surprised by the entrance of the heroes meddling with his evil plan, Team Rocket gave depressed looks at Satoshi, Pikachu, Alis and Altaria, they knew their plans were going too well to be truth.

- I'm Satoshi from Pallet Town! This is my partner Pikachu! Says Satoshi defiantly smiling to Arnozobo and Team Rocket, Pikachu also cries - Pikachu! Pikachu! Alis removes her sword from the sheath, balances it into a spiral and points it's tip to Arnozobo and Team Rocket - I'm Alis, Princess from Lake City, we are here to stop the awakening of Darkrai and to rescue our friends! She yells while her Altaria chirps bravely - Altaria! Altaria!

Arnozobo laughs evilly - There is no one to save here! They enjoyed their fun with me! Gastly, Banette and Duskull abide to my command, eliminate those impertinent guests! Yells Arnozobo raises his Arbok Staff commanding the Ghost Type Pokémon to make themselves visible and attack the gang.

In a poof of purple smoke the entire room is surrounded by a group of thirty Ghost Pokémon, multiple Gastly, Banette and Duskull start to surround Alis, Pikachu, Altaria and Satoshi, they gasp at the surprise but they don't lose their courage despite the impressive number of fighters around them.

- I'm going to save Go and battle those Pokémon! Says Satoshi, Alis nods her head positively to Satoshi and says - Okay! I'm going to stop Arnozobo and break the cage where Scorbunny is. The girl rushes forward with her Altaria, she commands the Pokémon - Altaria uses SAFEGUARD on me and you!.

The blue bird dragon Pokémon cries - Altaria! A powerful mysterious white energy shield surrounds the body of Altaria and Alis as both dash forward to the wooden stage, this surprises Arnozobo and Team Rocket leaving the motionless, the Ghost Pokémon try to use their attacks at them but they are blocked by the SAFEGUARD move.

- Pikachu, use ELECTROWEB on the group above Go! Commands Satoshi as they rush toward the dinner table, the electric Pokémon jumps mid air and cries - Pikachu! The Pokémon with a swing of his Z-Tail launches a big web of electric energy binding a group of Banette and Gastly that are above Go against the wall, those Ghost Pokémon suffer great damage from the powerful attack of the electric Pokémon.

Alis aims her sword at the Arbok Staff to destroy it, the swords hit the Arbok Staff, the metal clash sound echoes through the room, Arnozobo looks angry at her - There is nothing more that I hate than a girl who thinks she is a boy! Says the madmen, Alis just smiles and jumps back and forth in continuous attacks against the Arbok Staff - There is nothing more that I hate than a corrupt king in a great kingdom! Says the girl in a mocking tone.

Team Rocket is at the side left side of the room guarding Scorbunny cage, meanwhile, Satoshi is trying to make Go out of his deep sad emotional state - Go, please, we have to go! Go just looks sad at Satoshi, his face is red from crying so much and with a lot of chocolate carrot cake splattered over it - I'm a terrible person Satoshi, I don't deserve your friendship. Says the boy heartbroken sobbing.

Pikachu evades barely a powerful combination attack of a group of Gastly who uses the move DARKBALL, the explosion of their attack breaks the left wall of the room which falls outside of the mansion, Sota and Koharu look at that powerful battle, Koharu shouts - Guys, don't give up!

- I'm a terrible person Satoshi, don't look at me! Sobs Go as he removes the arms of his best friend from him, Satoshi recognizes that in this state Go isn't going to help them, he concentrates on the battle that is happening at the room, he commands Pikachu once again - Pikachu! Move towards the group that is attacking Altaria and use THUNDERBOLT!

Altaria SAFEGUARD is broken by a powerful attack from behind, the Banette uses the move PHANTOM FORCE, the Pokémon suffered a lot of damage but it's far from being fainted, Alis takes some distance from Arnozobo, looks at her partner and commands - Altaria! Use DRAGON BREATH at the Banette!

- Better look at me little girl! Says Arnozobo hitting Alis with his staff, lucky for her, Arnozobo attack hit her flat blade but she loses balance and falls to the ground, the Altaria flies from the ground and launches her powerful DRAGON BREATH at the Banette destroying the ceiling of the room, debris falls where Team Rocket are and they shout in panic, the hit Banette suffered makes him instantly faints from the damage received.

Another group of Gastly appears behind Altaria preparing for a surprise attack but they are hit by Pikachu THUNDERBOLT and fall on the ground fainted - I got your back Altaria! Says Satoshi smiling, Pikachu replies to Altaria - Pika Pika!

The number of Ghost Pokémon are heavily reduced in the battlefield, Arnozobo looks displeased at the current outcome of the battle - This is why I don't like to use Pokémon, they are so weak. Says the man begrudged, he turns his face to Team Rocket and shouts - We're leaving! Follow me!

Team Rocket and Arnozobo run from the wooden stage to the backstage retreating to the secret passageway that will get them to the Secret Laboratory, Alis gets up and tries to run after them but she thinks back to Go, Scorbunny and the ongoing battle and retreats, she takes her sword and slices the entire cage in one single cut where Scorbunny is leaving the Pokémon free again.

- You're free my friend! Says Alis gently taking the now waking up Scorbunny at her arms. Bun Bun! Replies Scorbunny happy.

The remains of the Ghost Pokémon surround Altaria, Pikachu and Satoshi.

- Altaria and Pikachu, let's do a Double Attack! Satoshi commands both Pokémon, Altaria eyes shine trusting Satoshi as Pikachu jumps on the back of the Altaria, they both fly around the room very fast, Altaria uses the move SKY ATTACK while Pikachu uses THUNDERBOLT, they became together an arrow of electric energy as they dash through the Ghost Pokémon who faints one by one on the ground as they are hit by the powerful attack.

The combination attack is so strong that the the entire structure of the mansion shakes and even on the down-floor the floorboards, walls, furniture and windows start to break due to how powerful their attack is together, Koharu and Sota from the outside look happy at the show of lightning bolts coming from the mansion, they know it's a sign that Satoshi, Pikachu, Alis and Altaria are giving a good smack to the bad guys.

- Gastly! Cries in pain the last Ghost Pokémon as he falls on the floor fainted.

Pikachu and Altaria stop their attack and get back on the ground, they both hug each other after their successful Pokémon Battle, Alis with Scorbunny at her arms descends from the wooden stage and shouts very happily to the boy and their Pokémon- Satoshi! Pikachu! Altaria! Great work! The boy just blushed and threw his arms behind his neck - Ohhh! Thanks! You also helped a lot Altaria and Alis!

The battle is over and the light from the Night Zone starry sky illuminates the destroyed room where they are, they can hear the cheering from Koharu and Sota from outside, Alis says to Satoshi - Scorbunny is okay, I think he is too exhausted and needs to rest. - Bun Bun! Replies Scorbunny happy as she puts the Pokémon sitting on the floor, he is hugged by Pikachu and Altaria who cheer in happiness that Scorbunny is safe.

Satoshi and Alis look at Go who is still heart broken, sobbing and trapped in sad thoughts, Satoshi looks very sad to Alis and asks - How can I help him? He looks so sad. Alis puts her sword back in the sheath and says - We need to talk to him, only by understanding his sadness we will be able to make him better again.

Outside of the mansion Sota looks around surprised by something, he then asks a Koharu who is smiling happily because the battle is over - Did you hear a bell sound coming from the sky?

Koharu looks puzzled at her brother and asks - No, what sound? The boy points to the night sky in the Night Zone and shouts happy - I think I head a lot of bells coming this way!
