

Satoshi and Go Vacation Adventure in Arceus Kingdom

Chapter X - Legendary Battle

Arnozobo looks at the monitor screen of his computer at underground office astonished at what he sees, not only Satoshi, Alis, Pikachu, Altaria are coming for him as they descend from the underground passage that it's like an old dungeon stairs but that boy Go and his Scorbunny are back in action and seem to be fully recovered from his bullying.

The disbelief in his furiously eyes at their knight armors, at their confident smiles, as they talk and make little of him and his plans, they are certainly that they will stop him and his sons from awakening Darkrai and plunge the world once again in the correct order of the past.

In his small underground office Arnozobo sits on a square table with his three sons who look exactly the same, the room is small and well lit, the walls are white and the round table is made of brown wood, over the table there is a big gray computer connected to to the scientist laboratory, the security cameras and even to some defense mechanism he installed in the laboratory.

- Number two! Did you finish the preparation at the Chamber of Arceus to awaken Darkrai? Says the man gazing furiously at his son, the son in a moronic tone answers Arnozobo - Yes father, the scientist dudes are just finishing the last details.

Arnozobo punches the table with his fists and shouts furiously - I can't believe they aren't faster! Those imbeciles will reach us!

Number One says like Number Two, in a moronic and slow tone - Father, the scientists said that the Chamber of Arceus will be ready to revive Darkrai in fifteen minutes, Arnozobo smiles because it's way faster than he thought they would pull this so suddenly without any previous notice.

The madmen once again makes his shooting fingers pose and laughs - Okay! Okay! Okay! Those crybabies will not be able to arrive here so fast to stop us, besides, I will activate our Mechas to defend the entrance of the laboratory. Father and sons laugh but it's all a farce, deep down, Arnozobo and his sons are fearful that their plans will not go as he wants to go.

Number Three asks Arnozobo - What about Team Rocket? Asks him in a dumb tone.

Arnozobo just laughs and answers - I don't have a place for traitors among us of the Arnozobo Crime Family, I told you boys, Team Rocket got soft and too sentimental for their own good! Leave them at their cell!

The group of heroes finally reach the end of the passageway stairs, there is a circular wooden door at the end of the passageway that is unlocked, the gang opens it and enters a huge underground complex, this complex are the part of Lake City that due to geographical changes in the planet have been pushed to the underground

Old white buildings made of stones, clay and sun-dried mud are almost completely destroyed and other buildings made of the other materials are barely recolonized, some fragments of random stones and clay can be seen on the floor, an old statue probably in homage to Alis and the Shepherd is broken in half, the walls of the cave are blue by the reflection of the big crystal blue underwater lake.

The ceiling of the cave is very bright because the minerals inside the cave absorb all the lighting reflected on the water, stalactites come from the ceiling and you could even mistake them for crystals from a fantasy movie, a bit of grass and flowers can be seen growing on the ground and the floor.

The entire place is well lit and there is a clear patch marked on the ground to where people need to go to access the laboratory and the passageway that lead back to Arceus Kingdom, this was all work of Arnozobo, sadly, he probably didn't care too much about the scientific and historical value of many of the buildings, there are clearly signs of recent destruction of some buildings, statues etc.

- This place is beautiful! Yells Go making a big echo inside the cave, the group laughs in silence at the echo without to not make more echos.

Alis interrupts the boy and says in a lower tone - I hate to break the mood, but we can do sightseeing later, we need to reach the end of the complex where the laboratory and Chamber of Arceus, the boys and their Pokémon nod positively to Alis.

The heroes walk through the underground complex following Alis and her Altaria, Go thinks to himself how cool will be to tell Professor Sakuragi about this underground complex, the Professor is also very keen on ancient civilizations and Satoshi felt a bit sad remembering how the people of that long forgotten past weren't able to interact with Pokémon.

Pikachu and Scorbunny give very interesting looks to the underground complex, the feeling of a very long past that they could even comprehend made them wonder about life, the present, the past and the future, they even felt a bit anxious about all this heavy thoughts so they just dismissed them and concentrate on their task ahead.

The gang keeps walking making sure they are not been seen by some of the security cameras installed and at the same time making sure no one is following or is waiting them, the gang hides behind a big rock when they finally reach the end of the underground complex.

- That's where we need to enter. Says Alis in a very low whisper to Go, Satoshi, Pikachu, Scorbunny and Altaria, all of them nod positively to Alis.

A big metal oval door with a big sign written Laboratory over it, the big metal door it's guarded by two big white oval robots with a big green letter A on their center, probably the A stands for Arnozobo, their block feets and three fingered hands are connected to the main oval body by a big black flexible tube, on the top of the it's body there is a very wide sensor bar that it's flashing red like it's scanning the surrounding area, there is an antenna on top of it's head that keeps flashing a red light from it's tip.

- I think they already know that we are here. Says Go whispering to the gang, Alis nods positively and says very confident - I didn't know about those Mechas, but don't worry, we can handle them.

The heroes stand on their ground thinking about their next plan of actions, Alis then suggests a plan - Boys, I'm going all all out on the Mechas using Kamui with Altaria, I ask you to distract them with Scorbunny and Pikachu who are very fast Pokémon. The boys and their Pokémon smile and nod, not only because they like the plan but because they are eager to see Alis and Altaria use Kamui.

- Scorbunny! Use QUICK ATTACK but aim at the stones to throw at their visors! Commands Go as the Fire Rabbit Pokémon dashes trough the cave at high speed, as each step Scorbunny does he leaves a burn print of his feet on the ground, the Pokémon is surrounded by a white aura as he dashes.

The Arnozobo Mechas start to scan Scorbunny and prepare for one of their attacks, the robots aim can be seen on the floor by a big red dot, they launch their fists like a grappling hook hitting the ground but they miss Scorbunny who stick his tongue out mocking the robotic monsters, the ground is destroyed where the punch landed.

Going for a new strategy, the robots leave their post guarding the metal door and advance to the big stone where Go, Satoshi, Alis and Pikachu are hiding, this leaves the door unguarded.

Satoshi commands Pikachu - Pikachu use QUICK ATTACK, run in circles! Pikachu starts to run through the terrain but he finds it a bit harder because there is a lot of up and downs and it's not very plane, the Arnozobo Mechas prepare for another attack, the red dot it's perfectly on Pikachu but a bunch of rocks are thrown by Scorbunny on their sensors which make them miss once again their powerful grappling hook punches.

- Thank you Scorbunny! Yells a relief Satoshi.

The Arnozobo Mechas are confused by the high speed evasion of the Pokémon targets and their sensors are a bit damaged from the rocks, this is the perfect moment for Alis and Altaria to attack, they rush from behind the rock and advance to the Arnozobo Mechas.

- Kamui! Yells Alis as he takes her sword from the sheath, Altaria is flying by her side and chirps to the command of her partner - Altaria! Altaria! Alis then continues to summon the mystical power of Kamui as she gets closer and closer to the metal monsters - Altaria Sabatsu wo Saikuda!

A pink aura surrounds Alis and Altaria, Alis jumps high aiming both Arnozobo Mechas at the same time, she is going for an horizontal slash to cut their antennas off, in mid-air she commands Altaria - Altaria, use MOONBLAST at them!

The Flying Dragon Pokémon energizes herself and uses her Fairy-type move as she launches a powerful pink and blue orb of energy that hits both Arnozobo Robots making a blue and pink explosion, the energy goes deep in their armor exposing their mechanical insides which are damaged by the blast, Alis then with a powerful horizontal slash that emits a shining pink light cut both antennas off from the robots.

Without external command from the antennas and their insides damaged, the robots tip-toe back and fall on the ground making a huge mechanical sound that echoes in the cave, lucky for the heroes, this didn't cause damage to the structure of the cave, their red sensors stop flickering red, the robots are defeated.

Alis lands on the ground with Altaria on her side, the pink aura surrounding Alis and Altaria vanishes as the girl once again sheathes her silver sword now that the enemies have been neutralized, that was Kamui, a powerful connection between a human and a Pokémon, Satoshi and Go, now reunited with Pikachu and Scorbunny, just look at Alis and Altaria amazed by their coordination and powerful attacks.

- This is incredible! Says Satoshi with his mouth open, Pikachu also agrees with his partner - Pika Pika!

- Kamui is awesome! Says Go with Scorbunny jumping at his side and cheering - Bun Bun!

- Thanks Altaria! Says Alis gently patting Altaria 's head, the Pokémon chirps happily - Altaria! Altaria!

Arnozobo punches the keyboard of the computer totally breaking it, pieces of the keyboard fly over the table as he watches furiously his expensive Mechas being so easily defeated, even worse, he was the one controlling them, he just looks furiously to Number One, his other sons are already in Arceus Chamber finishing the last details to awaken Darkrai.

- That's not okay, that's not okay! Those cry babies and that nasty girl have defeated our creations so easily and are right in our doorsteps! Cries the madmen furiously, his cries of anger can be heard from even outside the room turning the whole laboratory mood in a bad one.

Number Two looks at his father and says in a slower pace trying not to make him angrier - Father, let's go to the Arceus Chamber, it's already been fifteen minutes.

Arnozobo looks at the clock on the computer monitor and sees that it's been more than fifteen minutes that has passed since they noticed them that the Arbok's Staff would be ready, he lost a bit of sense of time because of the whole fighting.

The dark suit man gets up from his chair and says relieved - Let's go okay! Let the scientists stop them while we head for the chamber! Arnozobo and his son take leave of the office and head to the Chamber of Arceus, he doesn't care what will happen to his scientist team or even with Team Rocket, if he controls Darkrai he will make the world as he see fits and his ideal world doesn't have space for losers like Team Rocket and the nerds of his laboratory.

- How do we get in? Says Go thinking looking at the door, the metal is very thick and seems to be very solid, Satoshi and Alis are also looking at the door, they notice that there is an electronic device on the right part of the door that probably it's used to open and close the door.

The white electronic device it's a small touch screen, the green background flashes asking users to insert the four-number password or use the card reader to access the laboratory, there are no other options available to use the device.

Satoshi looks at it and says intrigued by the message - It says it needs a password! Alis looks puzzled to the boys and asks - What would this password be? They didn't have any clue of what type of password Arnozobo would use and they didn't want to guess it wrong because they don't know the counter measures of the safety system of Arnozobo for imputing a wrong password.

Go suddenly has a nice idea, he snaps his fingers and says energetically - Guys, I have an idea! Why don't Pikachu use THUNDERBOLT on the device? Maybe the shock will open the door! Alis and Satoshi look at each other thinking about the idea, the gang also look at their Pokémon partners to see if they agreed with the idea, in the end, everyone agrees to follow Go's idea.

- It's worth a shot! Says Satoshi, Satoshi then commands Pikachu - Pikachu! Fry this electronic device with your THUNDERBOLT! The electronic Pokémon slaps his red cheeks and cries - Pika Pika! The Pokémon launches a powerful electric shock on the device.

The device starts to scramble it's numbers and letters randomly on the screen until the green background changes to blue, a new text appears written on the panel: Opening Gate due to Malfunction - Execute Safety Protocol 38, touch Open the Gate on the screen.

Some small vents open on the metal door probably to make the air from inside get out and the air from outside enter the laboratory, this is probably done in case of a fire or other types of hazards.

- Yeah! Shouts Go happy that his plan went perfectly - Bun Bun! Cries Scorbunny happy by his side.

Suddenly the group starts to sniff the air around, something totally caught the attention of their noses, they start to smell a terrible smell of spoiled milk, rotten fruits, the smell of a Muk or even of a Gardobor, but it couldn't be from the device because it didn't even make any smoke from burning it.

Go gives a suspicious look to Satoshi and asks - Satoshi, did you...before he even finished his sentence Satoshi shouts very grumpy - Go! I didn't fart, if this is what you're thinking! Alis, Pikachu, Altaria and Scorbunny laugh at the boys.

- I think this is just some bad smell but nothing toxic. Says Alis to the group, they are all with their noses covered using their hands, even their Pokémon can't handle the horrible smell, Satoshi thinks that maybe it's because they are conducting some type of scientific experiment inside the laboratory.

Satoshi then takes the initiative and says - Let's open the door already! Alis agrees and says - Be prepared guys! Go also gives his instructions to Pikachu, Scorbunny and Altaria - Be careful! It might be some type of trap!

Go touches the button of the touch screen panel, Satoshi, Alis, Pikachu, Altaria, Go and Scorbunny all prepare themselves for the unknown as the door slowly starts to open and revealing the inside of the laboratory, nothing that they could ever imagined would match what they see when the door fully open itself.

The laboratory is a big cold room, the walls are white and the inside is full of glassed work stalls each one equipped with a very advanced white computer, on the middle of the laboratory a giant green letter A hangs from the ceiling standing for Arnozobo, on the left wall of the laboratory there is a giant family photo of Arnozobo with his sons all making the shooting hand pose.

Some bizarre and curious posters are framed on the left wall with weird motivational messages and images, one of the poster says No Woman Allowed and showing an cartoon girl with a huge green X over her, the other poster shows a fedora hat and it's written Smarter Than You on giant black leathers over a white background and the most bizarre one is one written You're a Level 99 Warrior and it's a mirror.

Besides the door that the gang is coming from, there are other three doors, one of the door there is a sign written President Office, the other one is called Solitary and the last one is Arceus Chamber, pretty simple to understand where each door leads to.

The gang now knows where the horrible smell is coming from, cornered on the other side of the room, blocking the entrance of the Arceus Chamber, are at least fifteen scientists that work for Arnozobo in ill fitted green lab coats that don't cover their entire bodies, they are probably all in their thirties, all greasy, smelly, paled skin and with terrible personal hygiene, on the front of the group, a man with a face round as trash bag is sitting in a white chair with his legs crossed.

- I presume that you are now going for violence because your arguments are very stupid! Says the leader of the scientists in a nasal and whiny voice, he scratches his light brown goatee while the rest of the scientists are shaking behind him.

The gang looks confused at the leader of the scientists, Go is extremely annoyed by how they are all smelly and look like they haven't had contact with water for years - Who are those goofballs? Go shouts to the bizarre group of scientists.

- Goofballs? Yells the leader of the scientists offended as he continues to shout - We're the one and only Arnozobo Crime Family Scientific Team! We are not only experts on robotics, chemistry but also on public manipulation, we're the creators and managers of the late PokéTruth!

Satoshi, Go, Pikachu and Scorbunny start to laugh out loud, Alis and Altaria look at them confused - Go! They're exactly as you said they would be! Says Satoshi laughing almost falling to the ground - Oh no Satoshi! Even I couldn't even think they would be like this! Says Go as tears from laughing rolls from his eyes.

- Our brilliant presence made them realize how stupid they are and they have gone completely mad. Says the leader of the scientists while the others just simply nod and shake in fear. Satoshi, Go, Pikachu and Scorbunny hearing this declaration they just fall on the ground laughing ignoring the terrible smell coming from the scientists.

Alis ignores the laughter, pretends to cough and tries to start a conversation with the scientists - Excuse me, can you guys move from the door? We need to reach the Arceus Chamber. Says Alis very politely, the leader of the scientists raises his fists closed in a theatrical way and yells - How dare an inferior female talk to us like that? At this moment, Alis starts to agree with Go, they are some really, really, really special goofballs.

- Alis, don't worry! They are the guys of a website that me and Satoshi with the help of Junsar Police took off the Internet, we know them, they are like this. Says Go making a sign with his hand that they are crazy.

There is a bit of murmur behind the leader scientist and he raises his voice in a threatening tone - What do you mean you guys want to know what it is to talk to a girl? You all know that girls are stupid, smell bad and Arnozobo hates them! This is treason!

Go, Satoshi, Pikachu and Scorbunny stop laughing and try to get back to having a serious conversation with the leader of the scientists - I'm the boy with the Scorbunny photo! If you guys don't move, I'm going to be very mad! He says theatrically in a threatening way pretending to be angry while winking to Satoshi.

Satoshi gets on the game with Go and yells trying to look like a tough Pokéwood action hero - Yeah, I'm the guy with the Pikachu photo! Move or I will punish you all! Pikachu and Scorbunny also give mean looks to the scientists. - Pikachu! Cries Pikachu with electric shock coming from his cheeks while Scorbunny kicks a garbage bin on the floor and cries - Scorbunny!

- We're not afraid of a bunch of stupid crybabies and a girl! Yells the leader of the scientists trying to sound like his glorious boss, Arnozobo, without noticing that all the other scientists have left him behind and are all scattered on the walls of the laboratory shaking their legs and begging for mercy.

Go just points to him and says - I think you better look behind you! Says Go as he laughs, the leader of the scientists looks behind him and screams in fear, nervously he stands alone between the gang and the door that leads to Arceus Chamber.

- You're the two troublemakers who destroyed PokéTruth and made Big Boss Arnozobo really mad at us! You know, we would have received our payment for our first time if you guys didn't destroy the website! Yells the leader of the scientist already losing his breath.

Go and Satoshi give each other puzzled looks, Go then asks can't believing in what he heard - You guys are not paid to work for Arnozobo? The entire group of scientists just sigh at Go's question and the leader of the scientist says very proud - Yes! We are not getting paid, we even give our money to Arnozobo!

- For a bunch of guys who are very smart you guys are very dumb on certain parts. Says Satoshi as he feels sorry for them as Go just holds his laugh, the boys are already feeling sorry for those scientists who worked with Arnozobo, the twisted mind of Arnozobo probably has corrupted them as well they think.

Alis then says to Go and Satoshi - I believe they have been corrupted by Arnozobo, look at them, they seem so pitiable. Says Alis, her compassion makes all the scientists start to heavy breath and glare at her, Alis thinks this is super creepy, even Altaria chirps aggressively to the group of smelly men - Altaria! Altaria!

- Boss! Let's make a trade! Says one of the scientists followed by another one - Let them teach us how to talk to a cute girl and we let them pass! The rest of the scientists cheer as the idea is proposed, the leader of the scientists look angry at them and can't believe that the sight of a cute and polite girl just changed their minds.

Go then says - The first thing is take a shower at least once a day! Respect people's differences! Stop spreading hate and lies! Yells the boy as the scientists take their tablets in a rush and start to write the instructions, Satoshi gets on board too and yells - Help your family! Study! Be polite! Help your community! Satoshi and Go keep giving advice how those scientists can turn their lives for good instead of spending their entire lives working for Arnozobo and his goals of hate, discrimination, prejudice and crime.

Those are the same advices Satoshi and Go have given on the PokéTruth website, those scientists like the other users of PokéTruth are not horrible people, just people mislead, lied, target of fake news and bullying, in the end, they are just being used by some evil person to as pawns in their evil plans, crime schemes and bullying attacks.

Suddenly all the scientists realize the error of their ways as they kneel and beg for forgiveness for Alis, Satoshi, Go, Pikachu, Altaria and Scorbunny - We're deeply sorry! Please! Forgive us! Their change of heart is real and they start to feel that they have been made a bunch of fools by Arnozobo and his crime family.

A powerful tremor shakes the inside of the laboratory, making some chairs fall to the ground, pens roll from over the glassed work stalls and everyone loses a bit of balance, everyone already knows what is happening, Darkrai awakening is probably happening right.

Alis then takes charge of the situation and in a commanding voice yells - I want you to all to leave this place! Do you know what Arnozobo is planning to do? This entire place can be entirely destroyed at any second! Altaria also chirps commanding everyone to leave - Altaria! Altaria!

Another powerful tremor shakes the place, there is no time to waste, Satoshi says to Alis - We must hurry! Go nods positively to him and says - Yes! There is no more we can do here to help them.

- Thank you all for freeing us! We will never forgive you all! Shouts the scientists as they exit the room in a rush knocking computers, piles of sheets of paper and even chairs on the ground, they are not only happy for the encouragement to turn their lives to good but also very afraid of the situation, the only one left is the scientist leader who is still stubborn on following Arnozobo orders.

Satoshi and Go yells at him at the same time - Get out of here! The scared leader of the scientists run crying and shouting - You're a bunch of stupid boys and a stupid girl! Not all people can be talked out of following a bad patch, but in the end, they tried their best to help those poor scientists realize the error of their ways and turn their lives around.

The gang smiles at each other, they had their little payback time against those horrible people who have made PokéTruth and corrupted the beautiful Arceus Kingdom resort, they are now closer than ever to stop Arnozobo's ambition.

The gang rushes to Arceus Chamber - Help Us! Please! Help us! The desperate cries for help come from multiple familiar voices inside the room. The sign says it's a solitary, the gang stops without even thinking twice and rushes inside the room where the cries come from, they enter the small room featuring a prison cell, the bars are made of green lighting electricity.

Inside the prison cell they find Kojiro, Musashi and Meowth looking miserable, they are crying and begging to be free, the gang looks confused at seeing the allies of Arnozobo behind bars - Please help us! He is insane! Cries Kojiro begging for help.

- Oh, after all you guys did to me and Scorbunny you are asking for our help? Says Go crossing his arms looking smug, but his heart already told him to forgive them and help them out, Scorbunny also played with Team Rocket - Scor Scor! Says Scorbunny also crossing his arms and making a smug face.

Kojiro, Musashi and Meowth get on their knees and beg for forgiveness for Go and Scorbunny - We're sorry Go and Scorbunny! We went too far, but Arnozobo promised us that this whole plan would make our Big Boss proud but in the end he just wants to destroy the entire world! Pleas Musashi desperate and truly regretful of her actions.

Meowth adds more to their group apology - We have been thrown in prison because we don't agree anymore with him! Please, you need to save us! Kojiro then concludes the apology while he is on his knees - We have information that can be used by the Junsar Police to incriminate Arnozobo, his sons and the scientific team for their crimes in Arceus Kingdom and even clear the name of the resort!

Alis looks at Go and Satoshi, she smiles and says in a commanding tone - There is no time to waste, let's just release them! Satoshi also agrees - Yes! Pikachu also cheers agreeing with their opinion - Pika! Pika!

In the end, they didn't want Team Rocket to get hurt, they knew that their plans were never that evil like Arnozobo and they couldn't let them be inside the complex because as Alis said, at any moment the entire complex could be destroyed by the awakening of Darkrai.

Go notices that the device on the right wall of the prison cell it's the same from outside, he says - Satoshi, it's the same device, ask for Pikachu to use THUNDERBOLT on it! Satoshi fist bumps Go and says to Pikachu - Partner! Use THUNDERBOLT on the device!

Pikachu cries - Pika Pika! The Pokémon uses his powerful THUNDERBOLT launching a electricity shock on the device that malfunctions, the electric green lighting fences vanish making Team Rocket free, they launch themselves on the floor and start to kiss their feets, even Pikachu and Scorbunny, Alis laughs from the situation while the rest feels super awkward, lucky for Altaria she is flying and cannot be kissed by them.

- Guys, please! Just go, I already forgive you all! Says Go blushing a bit, truly forgiving Team Rocket, Scorbunny says - Scorbunny! Scorbunny! He is also forging Team Rocket, Scorbunny is even petting the head of Meowth.

Team Rocket in flash gets up on their feets and makes their farewell speech while they are at the door of the solitary - Satoshi, Go, Alis, Altaria, Scorbunny and Pikachu. Thank you all! Says Kojiro very seriously showing his innermost gratitude for them.

Musashi also says very happily - You're not a brat, all of you, you guys are true heroes! Scorbunny and Go blush once again by being complimented, Satoshi put his arm behind Alis and Satoshi giving them a hug and they smile confident to Team Rocket.

Meowth then yells smugly - This is just a temporary truce! We're still going to steal your Scorbunny, Pikachu and work for Team Rocket! Team Rocket after their farewell speech just run away down the complex as fast as they can.

The gang shrugs at the usual Team Rocket routine but they are happy by the compliments they received and that they apologized for what they did with Go and Scorbunny, now they just need to go to Arceus Chamber, as fast as possible the gang rushes to the Arceus Chamber, another big tremor can be felt and the gang have to readjust their balance to not fall on the floor.

They enter the door titled Arceus Chamber from the laboratory, it's a wide and long white circular corridor made of white stones, as everyone runs to the end of it Alis yells - This is it! They didn't do any modification, this is the original Arceus Chamber!

The long corridor ends and they find themselves in very big white room, the gang gasps at what they see, even Alis and Altaria who have been there before, but it's still an impressive view no less, the room feels like it's infinity expanding from all directions, they can't see the walls neither the the ceiling, the floor looks like water, but it's solid, a mixture of pink and white color as they mix together.

Balls of pink light float in the entire room like bubbles, the air inside the chamber is very pure and it's so well lit that no shadow can be seen cast inside of it, there is also a music playing, no instruments, only a beautiful choral very soothing and calming but also invoking feelings of magic and grandeur.

Ahead of the gang they see a stone pedestal with a huge Pokéball insignia draw surrounding it, a beautiful big white sword with a golden tilt it's half-way inside the stone, it's Stargazer, the sword built by Arceus, The Pokémon God, even further, they see an enormous translucent egg-shaped structure where inside Darkrai profoundly sleeps.

The beautiful image is shattered by Arnozobo and his sons, now the leader of the criminal family ditched his dark suit and is wearing a black robe with a very length dark green cape, he also wears a dark cloth headpiece with a green jewel on it's center, with the Arbok's Staff in hands, now completely dark, he uses it to pour a flow of dark energy from the Arbok's Staff eyes on the egg-shaped structure that Darkrai is sleeping in.

Arnozobo looking at his guests yells maniacally - Oh okay! Did you come here to witness the birth of the new great Pokémon World? His sons at his side are in silence admiring his father's evil triumphant moment.

- He is like a dark magician now! Yells Go surprised by the new outfit of Arnozobo and that he is already flooding Darkrai with the power of sadness he got from him, Arnozobo laughs evilly - I'm a Dark Magician! No silly crybabies or Pokémon can stop me now! Yells the madman crazy with his new power.

Satoshi shouts to Pikachu - Pikachu! Use THUNDERBOLT on Arnozobo and his sons! The electric Pokémon rushes forward and jumps, in mid-air from a safe distance from Arnozobo slaps his red cheeks and launches a powerful electric shock at Arnozobo.

- It's useless! Yells Arnozobo, the green jewel of his dark cloth headpiece shines and a green transparent barrier emerges surrounding Arnozobo and his sons, Pikachu's THUNDERBOLT is completely absorbed by the attack causing no damage to Arnozobo.

Satoshi, Alis, Go, Altaria, Scorbunny and Pikachu can't believe what they are seeing, Arnozobo laughs once again and explains - I know all about the old legends! About the great past, this is why I can use the dark forbidden magic! Yells the madman while his sons just laugh at the gang.

Suddenly the soothing music stops and gradually the white room begins to change its color to dark, the balls of light start to turn red and the floor starts to look dirty and corrupted, the power of Arnozobo is already cracking the egg-shaped structure that it's holding Darkrai.

Alis unsheathes her sword and says - Altaria! Let's go! The Pokémon partner of Alis chirps preparing herself for battle - Altaria! Altaria! They both rush to Arnozobo, they are aiming to break the staff using Kamui, but before they even get close enough, Arnozobo yells - Not so fast my little princess! He stokes the Arbok Staff on the ground and suddenly where Alis is running turns to quicksand and she is trapped - No! She yells frustrated, because it's quicksand, she doesn't move and stays still.

Altaria is flying so she isn't affected by the quicksand, Alis commands her partner - Use DRAGON BREATH! The Flying-Dragon Pokémon energizes herself and launches from her mouth a powerful purple flame ray that once again is completely neutralized by Arnozobo's green magic shield.

- Nothing we use can get through his shield! Says Satoshi trying to think of a strategy to use against Arnozobo, Go looks at Alis and commands Scorbunny - Scorbunny! Move very fast, jump with your arms extended and grab Alis from the quicksand!

The Pokémon starts to run very fast leaving burnt prints of his feet on the ground, he jumps horizontally extending his paws and grabs Alis and they both fall outside of the quicksand, very quickly they return to a safe distance from Arnozobo.

The room keeps getting darker, redder and more corrupted, the egg-shaped structure is almost completely shattered, the situation is getting worse and worse by the second, Alis looks at Go and Satoshi and says - Let's do a combination attack! The boys agree as they nod to Pikachu and Scorbunny.

- Scorbunny uses QUICK ATTACK! Says Go to Scorbunny, Satoshi then commands

Pikachu - Use IRONTAIL! Finally Alis says - Altaria, use MOONBLAST! The trio of Pokémon go forward, Arnozobo once again tries to stop them transforming the floor on quicksand, but they already know his trick so Scorbunny and Pikachu jump over it.

Pikachu's IRONTAIL and Scorbunny QUICK ATTACK hit at the same time the barrier of Arnozobo for no effect, even worse, this time the barrier produces a counter-attack shock-wave that launches the Pokémon in the air, they mildly damage, Altaria's MOONBLAST explodes in the barrier and once again a powerful shock-wave is emitted, lucky for the Pokémon, she is flying and not affected by the attack.

- Scorbunny! Says Go taking his Pokémon on his arms, Satoshi also looks out for Pikachu - Pikachu! Are you okay? Both Pokémon get up and are ready to fight and protect their trainers, Satoshi looks at Go and says - Let's try again but with different moves! Says Satoshi to Go and Alis who nods positively to his suggestion.

Suddenly the egg-shaped structure shatters itself as the crystal glass falls on the ground, the colossal Darkrai roars furiously from being awoken from his deep sleep, Arnozobo and his sons are quick and jump on its head, Arnozobo sticks the Arbok's Staff on Darkrai head controlling the Pokémon.

A green energy barrier surrounds Arnozobo and his sons permanently shielding him from any attack, the laugh of the madmen and his sons echoes as Satoshi, Go, Alis, Pikachu, Altaria and Scorbunny look at heartbroken and with their spirits shattered by the triumph of the villain.

- Ultimate Power! The power to make the world great again! Yells Arnozobo like a lunatic above Darkrai.

- No more political correctness! No more inclusion! No more diversity! No more soft losers! The madman continues to cry as his eyes get wide from all the anger he is feeling.

- No more Pokémon! No more stupid Trainers! No more friendship! Yells Arnozobo from the top of his lungs as the veins of his neck start to pop from all his hate.

- Hate! Hate! Hate! Okay! Okay! Okay! Okay! Yells Arnozobo spitting at each word he says making the shooting finger pose with the Arbok Staff at his hand, even his sons laugh maniacally, the delirious speech of Arnozobo is the true representation of evil.

Alis lets her sword fall on the ground as she gets on her knees, heartbroken that Darkrai is awakened and that they have failed their mission - We lost. She says without much energy while Altaria stops flying and gets on the ground also very sad

Satoshi is also without words seeing that dark, scary and evil scene of Arnozobo controlling Darkrai, he really thought they would win this, he gets on his knees on the floor and starts to cry hugging Pikachu that is also very scared, the Pokémon Trainer yells sadly - We have failed, this is the end!

- Don't give up! Yells Go with Scorbunny jumping at his side giving also his encouragement - Scorbunny! Scorbunny!

Satoshi, Pikachu, Alis and Altaria look sadly at Go who keeps yelling - You all taught me that it doesn't matter what happens, friends stay together and help teach others! We're like Pokémon, we can evolve, we can become better, we can still win this!

Arnozobo pets his Arbok Staff and laughs - Do you think you little idiots and your Pokémon can defeat my ultimate power? Says Arnozobo mocking.

Satoshi and Pikachu get up from the floor, they wipe their tears with their forearms and look determined to Go, Satoshi says confident - You're right bro! Thanks! Sorry, we're going to win against him! Alis also gets up from the ground, Altaria starts to fly at her side - Thanks Go and Scorbunny! We're not going to give up! Says her with her courage and determination restored.

Go takes his WishPokéBall in hand and looks at Satoshi who takes his WishPokéBall too.

- Are you ready? Says Go with a confident smile to Satoshi, Scorbunny jumps by his side too - Bun Bun!

- Yes, Let's go! Says Satoshi as he takes his WishPokéBall and throws it in the air.

The WishPokéBall of Go opens and from it's flames emerges the legendary Ho-Oh, his powerful blazing light illuminates the darkness of the room, with a powerful roar the Pokémon presents itself to Go to command, from the WishPokéBall of Satoshi emerges from a blue light the legendary Ho-Oh who blasts his giant wings sending gusts of wind at Arnozobo and Darkrai as he presents himself to Satoshi to command.

- They have summoned the Shepard partners! Yells Alis remembering their last battle together to seal Darkrai.

Arnozobo just yells from the top of Darkrai - Doesn't matter how much you insignificant fools add to your ranks, I have the ultimate power, I'm the new great world!

- Alis! We're going to use Stargazer to seal Darkrai! Says Go without even thinking, acting on instinct like Satoshi does, hearing this Satoshi replies analyzing the situation like Go does - I believe we're not alone good as the Shepherd but together we can even surpass him!

The girl smiles, they have grown so much from the adversities thrown at them, they deeply care for each one and they have finally realized the true power of friendship, small acts of kindness and to never give up, she says - Count me in! Let's go!

The gang rushes with Lugia and Ho-Oh at their side to Stargazer, Arnozobo starts to feel a bit anxious by their motivation and new allies, he yells from the top of lungs - Destroy those fools Darkrai, use DARK PULSE! A giant black hole appears behind Darkrai and from it a great number of balls of darkness are launched at the gang.

- Lugia! Cover us! Use HYDRO PUMP! Commands Satoshi as the legendary Pokémon flies over them and from it's mouth a powerful cannon of water clashes at the incoming attacks producing explosions in the air, Go also commands Ho-Oh - Use SACRED FIRE at the DARK PULSE! The legendary burning Pokémon launches from it's wings plumes of fireballs that directly hit the DARK PULSE also producing explosions in the air.

Even with Lugia and Ho-Oh, the relentless attacks of Darkrai even direct hit the legendary Pokémon, Satoshi has an idea to provide a backup from their legendary partners - Go! Ask Scorbunny to use DOUBLE KICK to launch Pikachu on the air! Go nods positively to the idea and shouts - Scorbunny! Use DOUBLE KICK and launch Pikachu!

Scorbunny stops running and turns upside down as Pikachu jump on his legs, Scorbunny with a powerful kick sends Pikachu to the air at the same height of Lugia and Ho-Oh, Satoshi don't even need to command Pikachu because he already knows what he needs to do.

The electric-type Pokémon slaps his red cheeks and uses THUNDERBOLT at its maximum power leading him almost to complete exhaustion of energy as an uncountable number of thunderbolts fly through the air hitting the energy balls of darkness from Darkrai DARK PULSE move. Lugia and Ho-Oh keep relentless attacking the DARK PULSE balls of shadows and even hitting the green barrier of Arnozobo.

Pikachu starts to fall from a great height, noticing that Scorbunny leaps in the air and catches his exhausted friend, they have finally arrived at where Stargazer is, Alis says - It's time to end this!

Go hands touch the tilt of Stargazer with Satoshi and Alis, they easily remove the white sword from the stone, as the sword is removed they are surrounded by a golden light coming from the blade, this golden light starts to attach it to their bodies and of Scorbunny, Pikachu and Altaria.

- This is the power of Kamui. Says Go impressed by how he could feel the energy, the heart, the mind and the feelings of not only Scorbunny but also Altaria, Satoshi, Alis and Pikachu, Satoshi confident yell - Yes! I can feel, this is our connection, it's time to save Darkrai! Alis agrees and yells - Let's use Stargazer!

With sword in hand, the gang nods to each other, Pikachu climbs Satoshi shoulder, Scorbunny jumps also on Go's shoulder while Altaria rests with her feet on Alis head, they turn themselves directly to Arnozobo and his sons controlling Darkrai.

- The strength to dispel the darkness and clear the patch! Yells Go with the sword above their heads while Scorbunny shouts - Scorbunny!

- The light of hope that illuminates the future! Yells Alis with Altaria chirping - Altaria!
- And all our bonds and feelings poured into this one attack! Says Satoshi with Pikachu yelling - Pikachu!
- Open the door to a new world! Yells Satoshi, Go and Alis at the same time.

From the tip of Stargazer a powerful blue light is emitted that pierces the dark and red clouds surrounding the room, suddenly this blue light turns golden and widens itself, they can feel all the memories and feelings of their friends, Pokémon and family with Stargazer in their hands.

- STARGAZERRRRRRRRRRRRRRRR! Yells Satoshi, Go and Alis as the powerful golden light of the swords descends and hits directly Arnozobo's green barrier, the lunatic and his sons gasp for air as they see that even with Darkrai power the barrier is shattering.

- Why? Why? Why? This is not okay! This is not okay! This is not okay! The madmen and his sons cry desperate as the barrier breaks and they are launched in the air by the powerful attack, the Arbok Staff disintegrates as they are directly launched inside the black hole of DARK PULSE and engulfed by it, they vanish without a trace.

Darkrai regains controls of himself and stops his DARK PULSE move, Lugia and Ho-Oh stop also attacking the him, Lugia and Ho-Oh have suffered a lot of damage from the battle, they look at the gang and nod, it's time for them to return to their original places, they start to shine and turn into balls of light and suddenly they also vanish.

The room starts slowly to go back to its original form before Arnozobo's corruption, the balls of light once again turn white, the floor turns pink and white again like solid water and the air it's pure like in the mountains and the beach, the corruption, sadness and evil has been banished.

Stargazer is still in Go, Satoshi and Alis hands, they look up as their Pokémon to Darkrai who speaks telepathically with them, the gang is exhausted and grateful that this is all is over and there is a happy ending, they don't see Arnozobo and his sons anywhere.

- I'm grateful for being free from this chamber. Arceus and the Shepard mercifully made me sealed here until I learned what is happiness and love, I learned those sentiments from you Satoshi, Go, Alis, Altaria, Pikachu and Scorbunny as you have battled against those evil man, there is no reason for me to be sealed again, I ask and wish to be free and experience this new ever evolving world not trapped by the wrongs of the past.

Alis, Satoshi and Go put Stargazer inside the stone again, exhausted Go, Satoshi, Pikachu and Scorbunny fall on the ground, Alis says happily - You're free Darkrai! This was the last act of kindness of us and Shepherd, to make you live your life to the fullest!

- What about Arnozobo and his sons ? Asks Satoshi pitting the horrible man, his heart is so pure that even people like Arnozobo and his sons have a space for forgiveness, Darkrai speaks to their heart - Don't worry, they have been sent to a place of greater knowledge and goodness that will give them the chance to find happiness.

Go smiles at Scorbunny and pets the Pokémon head - Who would say that in the end we would have a real fantasy adventure in Arceus Kingdom. Scorbunny exhausted replies - Bun Bun!

Satoshi pets Pikachu and says grateful - Thank you for everything guys! Especially you Pikachu!

Alis now sits on the ground with Altaria by her side petting her - Altaria! Altaria!
Replies the Pokémon happily.

Exhausted and happy the heroes of the present united with the past and the future rest in Arceus Chamber basked by the curious and happy eyes of the colossal Darkrai, their final adventure in the Arceus Kingdom is over and they can rest and enjoy the rest of their vacation together.

In the end, the smallest acts of kindness proved to be the most powerful weapon against the big acts of evil of Arnozobo and his crime family, Satoshi and Go bonds of friendship and courage gave everyone the power they needed to correct the wrong of the past, set the present on it's correct course and guarantee a future where anyone, despite of any difference, can smile.
